1. Introduction

SentinelAI Technologies Pvt. Ltd. recognizes the importance of maintaining a healthy work-life balance. This Leave Policy establishes a transparent framework for employees to request and utilize leave while ensuring that business operations continue without disruption.

Employees are encouraged to plan their leave in advance whenever possible and communicate effectively with their reporting managers regarding their absence. Proper leave management helps teams coordinate workloads and ensures continuity of critical business activities.

2. Purpose

The objectives of this policy are to:

- Promote employee well-being.
 - Maintain consistency in leave administration.
 - Ensure fairness across all departments.
 - Define employee and manager responsibilities.
 - Minimize operational disruptions.
 - Comply with applicable labor regulations.

3. Scope

This policy applies to:

- Permanent employees
- Probationary employees
- Contract employees (where applicable)
- Interns (only if specified in internship agreements)

The policy covers all offices operated by SentinelAI Technologies Pvt. Ltd. within India.

4. Types of Leave

The organization provides several categories of leave to accommodate planned, emergency, medical, and family-related situations.

Available leave categories include:

- Annual Leave
- Casual Leave
- Sick Leave
- Maternity Leave
- Paternity Leave
- Bereavement Leave
- Compensatory Off
- Leave Without Pay (LWP)

Each category has specific eligibility requirements and approval procedures.

5. Annual Leave Policy

Eligible employees receive 20 days of Annual Leave during each calendar year.

Annual Leave should be planned in advance whenever possible.

Employees are encouraged to submit leave requests at least five working days before the intended start date.

Unused Annual Leave may be carried forward to the next calendar year, subject to company limits and HR approval.

Managers may defer approval during critical project periods after discussing alternative dates with the employee.

6. Casual Leave Policy

Employees are entitled to 8 days of Casual Leave each year.

Casual Leave is intended for:

- Personal work
- Family commitments
- Short-duration emergencies
- Urgent appointments

Employees should notify their reporting manager before the start of the working day whenever possible.

Unused Casual Leave expires at the end of the calendar year and cannot be encashed.

7. Sick Leave Policy

Employees receive 12 days of Sick Leave annually.

Sick Leave should be used only for genuine medical reasons.

Employees absent for more than three consecutive working days may be required to submit a medical certificate issued by a registered medical practitioner.

Managers should be informed as early as possible regarding medical leave to assist with workload planning.

The company may request additional documentation for extended medical absences.

8. Maternity Leave

Eligible female employees are entitled to 26 weeks of paid maternity leave, in accordance with applicable labor regulations.

Employees planning maternity leave should inform HR and their reporting manager well in advance to facilitate project planning and workload transition.

Supporting medical documentation may be requested as part of the approval process.

9. Paternity Leave

Eligible male employees are entitled to 15 calendar days of paid paternity leave following the birth or legal adoption of a child.

Paternity Leave should normally be utilized within six months of the qualifying event.

10. Bereavement Leave

Employees may request up to five working days of Bereavement Leave following the death of an immediate family member.

Additional leave may be granted under exceptional circumstances subject to management approval.

The company understands that employees may require flexibility during emotionally difficult periods and encourages open communication with managers.

11. Compensatory Off

Employees required to work on officially approved holidays or weekends may become eligible for Compensatory Off.

Compensatory Off must:

- Receive prior managerial approval.
- Be recorded in the HR portal.
- Be utilized within three months unless otherwise approved.

Unused Compensatory Off expires automatically after the validity period.

12. Leave Approval Process

The standard leave approval workflow is as follows:

- 1. Employee submits a request through the HR Management Portal.
- 2. Reporting Manager reviews workload and staffing availability.
- 3. HR verifies leave balance and policy compliance.
- 4. Final approval notification is sent to the employee.
- 5. Team members are informed when required for project coordination.

Emergency leave requests may follow an expedited approval process.

13. Leave Cancellation

Employees wishing to cancel approved leave should update the HR portal immediately.

Managers should also be informed to facilitate work planning.

Repeated cancellation of planned leave without valid reasons may affect workforce scheduling.

14. Leave Without Pay (LWP)

If an employee exhausts all available leave balances, Leave Without Pay may be requested.

Approval depends on:

- Business requirements
- Manager recommendation
- HR review
- Employment policies

During Leave Without Pay, salary adjustments may apply according to payroll policies.

15. Company Holidays

The organization publishes an official holiday calendar each year.

The calendar includes:

- National Holidays
- Regional Holidays
- Festival Holidays
- Company Declared Holidays

Employees should refer to the HR portal for the latest holiday schedule.

16. Employee Responsibilities

Employees are expected to:

- Submit leave requests promptly.
- Provide accurate information.
- Maintain communication with managers.
- Complete handover of critical work before planned leave.
- Update project documentation where necessary.
- Respond to urgent business communications only when previously agreed.

Managers are responsible for ensuring adequate team coverage during employee absences.

17. Frequently Asked Questions

Can I combine Annual Leave and Casual Leave?

Yes. Employees may combine different leave types subject to managerial approval and business requirements.

What happens if I fall sick during Annual Leave?

Employees should notify HR and their reporting manager immediately. Supporting medical documentation may be requested before the leave category is changed.

Can unused Sick Leave be carried forward?

No. Sick Leave expires at the end of the leave cycle unless otherwise specified by HR policy.

Can my leave request be rejected?

Yes. Leave requests may be deferred or declined due to project deadlines, staffing requirements, or operational needs. Managers should communicate the reasons and discuss alternative dates whenever possible.

How do I check my leave balance?

Employees can view their current leave balance through the HR Management Portal.
